Dear Children,

This weekend it is the BIG Garden Birdwatch. You might like to log onto the RSPB site and download a full pack so that you can get involved but you will need some help from a grown up.

Or you could ask to make one of the recipes on the back of this sheet and watch as lots of birds fly down into your garden.

I would love to know what you get up to this weekend to 'Count the wildlife that is counting on you!'

It would be lovely if I could create a school display sharing your information or pictures etc.

Happy Birdwatching!

Mrs Grayson
