

Help us raise school funds and raise your child's literacy

We will be coming to school to run a literacy workshop based on one of our fantastic multi award winning Pojo stories.

We would like to offer your child a copy of one of our books and for each book we sell your school will receive £1 to help improve literacy.

Pojo is a little dog with itchy paws who goes on big adventures and helps to get children really excited about telling stories.

£1 from every book will go to the school

Every book signed by the authors

Please fill in the order form overleaf.
