14th February 2017

Dear Parents & Carers,

World Book Day – Thursday 2nd March 2017

This year is the 20th birthday of the annual event, World Book Day. To celebrate this special milestone and to promote the book “You Must Bring a Hat”, published by local author, Simon Philip, we would like children to come to school wearing a hat inspired by a book.

This could be a Dr Seuss style hat, a witch’s hat or Willy Wonka style to suggest a few. Children are asked to wear their school uniform with their book inspired hat.

The juniors will also be wearing a book inspired hat and after lunch we will be joining them on the field for a hat parade. We invite children to bring the book their hat has been inspired by or another favourite book as each class will be paired with a class from the Juniors to share their book after the hat parade. Please can we ask that the book is named.

During the whole week of World Book Day (Monday 27th February to Friday 3rd March) there will be a Swap Shop in the Pop up shop in the playground after school. We would like the children to donate a good condition well-loved book which they can swap it for in the Swap Shop. This is to promote a love of reading and help grow children’s reading range in an inexpensive way.

We hope you have fun making a book inspired hat over the half term holiday and we looking forward to seeing them.

Yours sincerely,

Miss R Skillern
English Lead
