Dear Parents and Carers of Year One children,

As we start to think about your child's transition into Year Two I am writing to remind you of the importance of your child being able to confidently read and write the full list of Year One Common Exception Words. This knowledge and preparation will help to ensure that their transition into Year Two is as smooth as possible. This will enable us in Year Two to commence the learning of the 64 Year Two Common Exception Words.

As always, we appreciate any additional support you can give at home in practicing the reading and writing of these words. Remember it does not have to be completed like a spelling test but instead why not have fun using water and a paintbrush on the patio, writing in a glitter tray or in the condensation after a bath. A list of these words is on the reverse of this letter in case you have misplaced the original copy.

Thank you in anticipation of your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Rachel Skillern
English Leader
