

Things that make storytelling motivating

1. the way you hold a book – make it seem precious and exciting
2. warm up before the story- give the children teasers
3. Read the title together
4. hold the book to your side, don't cover your face
5. keep one hand free to use for actions
6. think about how you turn the pages- keep the suspense
7. use the book. Peep under it, flap it , wriggle it
8. involve the children, talk about specific words, predict
9. keep the flow going . don't stop for too long
10. use your face. Exaggerated your facial expressions x 3
11. use your voice x 3
